Any additional comments

Teachers and staff at APS are amazing. Mrs Lennon is passionate and very caring teacher. We are glad to be part of the school community.

Since attending my child's development has come on so well, she is totally different person. So confident - thank you!

Brilliant school - amazing teachers

The school and staff are fantastic and very supportive. They are always there when you need any support or to talk to. All the teachers and children are the best people in the world.

So glad I chose the school, wish it was sooner, amazing

Our child is enjoying the school - thank you

This school always goes above and beyond. Every child is equal, I would recommend this school to other parents 100%

Great school and great teachers!

The staff are amazing and feel very supportive towards myself as a parent and the child, they go above and beyond, excellent school.

I am so impressed with the level of support that my children receives. They love coming to school. Mrs Smart is so lovely and always welcoming. Mrs Gee has been a great support with SEND needs. Communication is fantastic and I always feel involved. I wish I would have sent my eldest child to Adswood. Thanks for everything.

Fantastic school. I am proud that my daughter gets to be part of this family because that's exactly what the school is, not just numbers and statistics but personal wellbeing, mental health and all round promoting positivity and kindness

The staff are very supportive of all situations at any time for the whole family

My child does have SEND but due to not displaying at school it is very difficult to do a plan for her

Love all the teachers and both my daughters do to

Best school - thank you!

Thank you for working in partnership with our school
